The program is aimed at first-time offenders. Those who successfully complete the program will not have a criminal conviction on their records. The goal of the diversion program is to encourage first-time offenders to learn from their mistakes, and to discourage them from further misconduct in the community.

- (b) ELIGIBILITY. The program is open to first-time offenders (persons who have not already participated in the diversion program and who have not been convicted as an adult in this or other courts for any other criminal activity or any alcohol-related traffic offenses) whose pending charges do not include any of the following: 1) Offenses of violence (unless R.C. § 2935.36(A)(2) exceptions apply); 2) Violations of Chapter 2925 or 3719 of the Revised Code or a violation of any substantially similar municipal ordinance; 3) Violations of section 4511.19 of the Revised Code or a violation of any substantially similar municipal ordinance.

Before making the recommendation, the prosecutor must consult any victim of the alleged crime(s) and must consider any victim's views. Admission to the program is not automatic, and the judge retains the discretion to reject the proposed participation of any given defendant.

The accused also agrees to the following conditions:

Upon satisfactory completion of the program, the Prosecuting attorney shall recommend to the trial court that the charges against the accused be dismissed, and the Court shall, upon such recommendation, dismiss the charges. The accused understands and agrees that a violation of the foregoing standards or conditions shall cause the accused to be sentenced on the charges.

For example, where driving privileges have been granted for work, proof of employment must be shown; or for education purposes, a school schedule must be shown.

(b) When the Defendant has paid all fines and/or costs in full, the Clerk shall issue a Driving Letter for privileges consistent with the Judge's Order until the end of the court-imposed suspension or until the expiration of valid automobile insurance, whichever occurs first. Upon expiration of automobile insurance, the Defendant must provide proof of renewed valid insurance, whereupon the Driving Letter shall be reissued.

(c) When the Defendant has not paid his/her fines and/or costs, the Clerk shall issue a Driving Letter for privileges consistent with the Judge's Order that shall expire on the date and time set for the Fines and Costs Review Hearing.
